Consequenter queritur utrum amicos participantes magis eligenda quam que non etc. q.

Utrum complexiones diversorum eligibilius quam alterius personas amicitia sunt diversimode assignande. Quod sic.
|| Contra primo probatur quod complexiones flegmatice sunt magis eligende quam complexiones sanguinee, arguitur quia volo quod omnes amici mei sint flegmatici et aliqui sanguinei, tunc arguitur magis legitime principaliter amicitie non sunt magis eligenda, sicut complexio flegmatica principaliter amicitie ergo est magis eligenda. || 2o probatur quod altera amicorum sit eligendiora que operam veritatis ad eos quam que in aliis operibus amicorum principaliter amicitie et non in opere veritatis aliorum, ergo altera amicorum sunt magis eligenda que operam veritatis ad eos quia tamen extra quod in quo amicitie principaliter est magis eligendum. || 3o probatur quod artes mechanice amicorum sunt eligendiores quam artes liberales et predicamentales aliorum, quia quanto bonorum amicorum ut sic sunt eligendiora quam bonorum aliorum, sed artes mechanice sunt bonorum amicorum ut patet etc. || Contra 2am probatur quod delectatio spiritualis sit magis eligenda quam operatio [illegible] quia ad amicos aliqui plus volunt agere operationes spirituales quam [illegible] naturales, ergo sunt magis eligenda quam extra [illegible] quia per delectationes spirituales voluntas salvat amicitiam || partes spirituales [illegible] amicitie || Ad questionem operis [illegible] Philosophus principaliter et [illegible] conclusiones. || Nota [illegible] quod [illegible] bonum honesta magis [illegible] principaliter amicitie sunt magis eligenda quam magis [illegible] principaliter [illegible] quia omnibus non [illegible] bonum et non honesta et utilia sunt bona utilia [illegible] sunt non delectabilia [illegible] sunt bona honesta quia si flegmatici [illegible] regula quod sint [illegible] bona honesta etc.

Et quod ipse dicit quod bona magis bona principaliter amicitie ut sunt bona eligendiora quam bona magis bona non principaliter amicitie ut patet et complexiones flegmatice ut sunt amicorum sunt eligendiora sanguineis quia amici bona aliorum quam non sunt amicitie ut patet. Et quod additur quod [illegible] predicatur quod sanctorum et complexiones quorum virorum bonorum ut patet quod non [illegible] se mutuo [illegible] aliorum [illegible] melior quia ut complexiones. || Ad primum arguitur quod non est [illegible] consimile et quod aliqui complexiones amicorum sunt eligendiores ut patet. || Ad 2o et 3o dicitur sicut. || Ad argumentum quod est contra 2am conclusionem. Est notandum quod [illegible] delectabilia honesta et utilia modo [illegible] amicitia est [illegible] quod utile bonum [illegible] delectatione 3a [illegible] honesta modo amicitia [illegible] bonum delectabile non est [illegible] honesta [illegible] || 2o modo delectatio [illegible] et male quod sit [illegible] et quando et quo [illegible] et [illegible] non est [illegible] sapere et amare [illegible] est magis eligenda || 2a conclusio quod [illegible] dicitur [illegible] quod [illegible] non in de[illegible] non est eligenda quia sit [illegible] dictamen [illegible] || Ad [illegible] amicitia ad eos amicitia est [illegible] ad eos quia [illegible] amans [illegible] ad amantem [illegible] est amicitia [illegible] non est amicitia honesta [illegible] est amicitia delectabilis [illegible] est amicitia [illegible] ad eos [illegible] ad eos artes mechanicales sunt [illegible] vigore [illegible] dissolutione amicitie 2o [illegible] quia [illegible] quod [illegible] in honesto [illegible] amicitia et non diminuit.

Et que sunt ex [illegible] natura [illegible] alique sunt magis eligenda
